

Uniform-- Why?

- We pride ourselves in creating an environment of college and career readiness
- Our dress code is a statement of our professional culture

Dress Code

- Freshmen= tan, black, grey, dress pants

"Graduating all students as critical thinkers and self-directed learners prepared for success in college, meaningful careers, community involvement, and family life."

Dress Code

"Graduating all students as critical thinkers and self-directed learners prepared for success in college, meaningful careers, community involvement, and family life."

Hair and Accessories

"Graduating all students as critical thinkers and self-directed learners prepared for success in college, meaningful careers, community involvement, and family life."

Hair and Accessories

"Graduating all students as critical thinkers and self-directed learners prepared for success in college, meaningful careers, community involvement, and family life."

Shoes

"Graduating all students as critical thinkers and self-directed learners prepared for success in college, meaningful careers, community involvement, and family life."

Shoes

Shirts

- Carmen Issued Button-Up Shirt
- Only the top button may be unbuttoned
- Gentlemen must wear ties
- Shirts must be tucked in at all times
- Undershirts must be plain
- If you want to wear a sweater, it must be plain black, white, grey, or burgundy

The sweater may not have a hood or a zipper

Accessories

- Only ladies may wear earrings
 - They must be smaller than a silver dollar (1 inch)
- All necklaces must be tucked into shirts
- Tattoos must be covered up at all times
- Jewelry and accessories may not have inappropriate words or images on them
 - This includes socks

Students with Unfixable Uniform Violations

- Your advisor will check you for complete uniform in the morning
- If you are out of uniform and cannot fix your uniform yourself, your advisor or a Dean will help you get it fixed
 - If this is unsuccessful, we will call home to have someone bring up the correct uniform. You will not go to class until it is fixed

Student Panel

- Introductions
- Returning Student Name
 - Grade
 - Advisory
 - Favorite Carmen moment
 - Favorite Character Trait and why
- New Eagles: Raise your hand to ask a question of a returning Eagle
 - This is a great chance to show Social Intelligence!

